

Andrea Newton

Partner

a.newton@harriskyriakides.law

V-Card

FAX: +357 24 201 601

TEL: +357 24 201 663

Expertise

Sale, lease, and construction agreements of immovable property

Academic Qualifications

LLB, University of Birmingham, 2015

Professional Qualifications

Member of the Cyprus Bar, 2018

Summary

Andrea Newton is a Partner of the Commercial, Real Estate and Employment advisory Department at Harris Kyriakides. Andrea specialises in sale/purchase and lease agreements for Cyprus real estate, the acquisition of Cyprus assets by foreign nationals, international license, franchise and trademark license agreements. She advises on a full range of real estate development projects, from office buildings and mixed use facilities to large scale urban residential projects as well as hotels and retail facilities. She is regularly involved in asset acquisitions, joint ventures and the setting up of other corporate structures on behalf of a major real estate development company.

She also has experience in the energy and maritime sectors as she previously worked for an international oil and gas company. Andrea is fluent in Greek, French, and English.

Recent Practice

- Advised on the management and operation of the first Radisson Blu hotel in Cyprus;
- Handled an acquisition of a long term lease of a property in the industrial area of Larnaca from the Ministry of Commerce, Industry and Tourism; and
- Advised on franchise agreements for the opening of international hotel brands in Cyprus.