

Chara Palekythriti

Junior Associate

c.palekythriti@harriskyriakides.law

V-Card

FAX: +357 24 201 601

TEL: +357 22 057 760

Expertise

Oil and Gas, Administrative Law, Overview and Preparation of the Tender process as well as Data protection

Academic Qualifications

LLM (Master of Laws), City, University of London, 2020

LLB, University of Sheffield, 2017

Summary

Chara Palekythriti is a Junior Associate of the Department of Competition, Public Procurement and Regulatory and the Department of Data Protection and Cyber Law at Harris Kyriakides LLC. She specializes in the area of oil and gas, shipping, commercial law and data protection. She has graduated from the University of Sheffield, where she acquired the Bachelor Degree in Law and she is also an Accredited Mediator since 2020. She is fluent in Greek and English languages.

Recent practice

- Representation of clients in court proceedings and before various

Professional Qualifications

Member of the Cyprus Bar, 2020 Accredited Mediator, 2020

authorities/bodies such as the Commission for the Protection of Competition, the Labour Department, etc.

- Preparation of pleadings and other court documents.
- Drafting of submissions in the context of a trademark registration in Cyprus.
- Review of various contracts and agreements related to the oil and gas industry.
- Drafting of submissions in the context of a notification of concentration to the Commission for the Protection of Competition.
- Preparation of documents related to GDPR compliance (Privacy Notices, Privacy Policies, Gap Analysis, etc).
- Provision of advice on GDPR matters.