

Thecla Theodorou

Junior Associate

t.theodorou@harriskyriakides.law

V-Card

FAX: +357 24 201601

TEL: +357 24 201718

Expertise

Corporate Dispute Resolution; focuses in Corporate and Commercial Litigation and Arbitration

Academic Qualifications

LLM, University College London, 2018

LLB, National and Kapodistrian University of Athens, 2016

Summary

Thecla Theodorou is a Junior Associate in the Insurance Law and Personal Injury Department at Harris Kyriakides LLC. Thecla has experience in advising and providing legal services to a range of international and domestic clients in the disciplines of corporate and commercial law. She often deals with complex cases regarding shareholder disputes, fraudulent actions, asset tracing, liquidation proceedings and freezing injunctions in the aid of proceedings. Thecla also has experience in advising clients on matters of administrative law and public procurement Law.

Recent Practice

Professional Qualifications

Member of the Cyprus Bar, 2017

- Involved in disputes over the ownership of the shares of various international and national companies;
- Involved in applications for the recognition and enforcement of international arbitral awards;
- Regularly handles various cases related to interim protective measures (Mareva injunction, Norwich Pharmacal injunction, and Anton Piller injunction).